IN THE

Supreme Court of the United States.

OCTOBER TERM, 1903.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI, Complainant, vs. THE STATE OF ILLINOIS AND THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO, Defendants.	Original No. 4

Comes now the complainant by its Attorney-General, Edward C. Crow, and moves the Court to pass its order herein authorizing complainant to have the record herein printed at such place as may be selected by complainant (provided said record is printed in conformity with the rules of the Court for the printing of records); that said record shall be printed under the supervision of the Commissioner herein, and when so printed the usual number of the printed copies of said record shall be returned to the Court by said Commissioner, together with the original record herein, and that this cause shall thereafter be proceeded with upon said printed record so returned by said Commissioner as the printed record in this case; that for the purpose of having said record printed as aforesaid, said Commissioner shall be authorized to turn over to the printer from time to time such portions of the original record as may be necessary for the use of the printer.

Further, that there shall be omitted from said printed record such portion of the original record as solicitors for the respective parties shall agree in writing, to be immaterial, but that all of said original record shall be returned to the Court by the Commissioner to the granting of all of which said motion defendants assent as is evidenced by the signatures of their solicitors hereto.

Further, that such exhibits as cannot be reproduced and incorporated in the record shall be returned to the Court by the Commissioner with the original record.
